The Council's licensed social workers have studied the Duluth Model Curriculum. The Duluth Model is a constantly evolving philosophy and practice that works to end violence against women. The curriculum we use is called Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter . We are able to walk you through this difficult topic and provide strategies to deal with anger in a non-violent way. This workshop will assist men in resolving conflicts to avoid self-defeating consequences. We realize that domestic violence affects both men and women and impacts the entire family. We are able to provide resources to treat all who are involved. Successful participants will receive a certificate at the conclusion of the workshop  Program Length- 17 Weeks, 1 day a week, Tuesdays 10am-12pm Practice Model- Duluth  Will take clients up until the third week and do offer make up sessions. If client will have to wait to begin the next session.	-Male -Intake Appointment Required. -No charge for Resident of Cuyahoga County
